

Somewhere I read;

I do not understand what I do. For what I want to do I do not do, but what I hate I do. And if I do what I do not want to do, I agree that the law is good. As it is, it is no longer I myself who do it, but it is sin living in me. For I know that good itself does not dwell in me, that is, in my human nature. For I have the desire to do what is good, but I cannot carry it out. For I do not do the good I want to do, but the evil I do not want to do—this I keep on doing (performing). Now if I do what I do not want to do, it is no longer I who do it, but it is sin living in me that does it.

The next paragraph is titled:

Future Glory

I might read that tomorrow.
